

Submission Guidelines: Climate Action Page

Philanthropy Impact's 'Climate Action' page is a platform for Platinum and Gold members to showcase their work addressing the climate crisis. Whether you're leading a campaign, funding innovative climate solutions, or advocating for policy change, this space is designed to amplify stories of climate impact, resilience, and leadership.

We welcome submissions that highlight how your organisation is contributing to a more sustainable, equitable, and climate-conscious future—through funding, collaboration, education, or direct action.

Eligibility and Submission Limits

This opportunity is open to:

- Platinum and Gold members of Philanthropy Impact (for-profit and non-profit)

Submission allowances:

- Platinum Members: Up to 5 submissions per year
 - Gold Members: Up to 2 submissions per year

Submission Format

To ensure consistency and accessibility across published content, please structure your submission as follows:

1. Title and Summary (approx. 100 words)

A brief overview of your campaign, initiative, or story.

2. Climate Action Narrative (approx. 500–1000 words)

Tell the story of your climate initiative. You may include:

- Purpose and Vision- What climate-related issue are you addressing, and why?
- Strategy and Implementation- Describe the approach you've taken, including any partnerships or innovation.
- Impact and Evidence- Share measurable results, progress, or stories from the field.
- Calls to Action- Are you looking for partners, funders, or engagement?
- Future Plans- What's next on your climate action journey?

3. Visuals

Include at least one high-resolution image (jpeg or png), ensuring all appropriate usage rights and permissions are secured.

4. Organisation and Author Bio (approx. 100 words)

Provide a short description of your organisation and, where relevant, the author or spokesperson.
